About the Park:

Enjoy the sandy beach and views of the Juan de Fuca Strait and Olympic Peninsula. Come play on the zip line or slide down the octopus in the playground! The park name comes from Cadboro Bay and the Gyro Club, who purchased the original 4.37 acres from the Goward estate in 1953 and then donated it to Saanich.

Remember to leash your dogs within 10m of the playground. No dogs allowed in the park or on the beach from May 1 – August 31, except before 9 a.m.
