

Selection Process & Criteria

Saanich Environmental Awards are an initiative of the Saanich Environment and Natural Areas Advisory Committee (ENAC). The ENAC looks at nominations using the following criteria:

- Award purpose & eligibility
- Duration/magnitude of effort
- Use of innovation
- Long-term effects of efforts
- Significance of efforts
- Past efforts

Award recipients receive a framed certificate awarded at a Saanich Council meeting in June. Recipients' names are also engraved on a permanent plaque at Saanich Municipal Hall.

Past Recipients

Past award winners have participated in initiatives such as invasive species removal, environmental education, native plant propagation, waste reduction and conservation of private property. Business awards have been given for innovative green services, sustainable development and energy efficient facilities. For a list of all previous winners, please see our website.

Saanich Environmental Awards: 20th Anniversary

Do you know someone who has worked hard to protect, preserve or enhance the environment?
Show your appreciation by submitting a nomination for the Saanich Environmental Awards.

ENVIRONMENTAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD CATEGORIES

To recognize local contributions made toward the natural environment in these categories:

- INDIVIDUAL
- VOLUNTEER ORGANIZATION
- BUSINESS
- YOUTH (Individual/youth group/school)

- BIODIVERSITY CONSERVATION
To recognize local conservation efforts towards a species, habitat or ecosystem.
- LONG-TERM ENVIRONMENTAL ACHIEVEMENT
To recognize a lifetime of local environmental effort by an individual.
- SUSTAINABILITY
To recognize a local contribution towards sustainability, integrating environmental, social and economic values.

Eligibility

Saanich Environmental Awards recognize people and organizations making a positive contribution to the natural environment in Saanich. The awards are not limited to Saanich residents, but the effect of the nominee's work must be in our municipality. If the nominee is employed in an environmental field, the nomination should indicate how their work exceeds their job requirements. Members of the Environment and Natural Areas Committee (ENAC), Saanich staff and Saanich Council are not eligible to receive awards.
