

e-Bulletin #23 – Resilient Saanich Updates

Hello,

We have a few Resilient Saanich updates to share.

Saanich is pleased to announce Diamond Head Consulting (DHC), who has been working on the State of Biodiversity Report for Resilient Saanich, has now been contracted to produce the Biodiversity Conservation Strategy. Public engagement is an important part of developing the strategy and we'll share the details widely.

This week, the fall issue of Saanich's Our Backyard magazine will be released with an article summarizing the Biodiversity Conservation Strategy process. You can also find this article posted on the Biodiversity Conservation Strategy webpage.

An updated Resilient Saanich Terms of Reference (TOR) document has just been posted on the Resilient Saanich webpages. Saanich Council endorsed an original Resilient Saanich TOR in 2020, which was updated to a Resilient Saanich Technical Committee TOR in the fall of 2021. The recent TOR updates are a result of the report received by Council in August 2022. The TOR continues to serve as a guide for the Resilient Saanich process.

Happy fall,

Resilient Saanich Team
