

e-Bulletin #8 - Resilient Saanich Public Engagement Open

Hello,

A big thank you to everyone who has taken the time to review the current Resilient Saanich information and respond with your feedback via the survey. If you haven't had time yet, it is still open until mid-March (exact closing date will be announced).

We would also like to hear any feedback and ideas for future public engagement. How can we best reach you and work with you? You can let us know on the survey form or via email (below).

- Visit the Virtual Open House at saanich.ca/biodiversity
- Fill out a feedback form available at the above link (online or print form)
- Contact staff with questions or for information: biodiversity@saanich.ca or 250-475-5471

A report on public engagement – your input - will be considered by Council in late March/ early April 2021. Council will then provide direction for the next phases of Resilient Saanich.

If you have any questions, we look forward to hearing from you.
