

Saanich Council Chamber

Webcasting Information

The District of Saanich will webcast via live video feed Council and Committee meetings for the purpose of expanding public access to the work of Council.

Filming, recording or photography may also take place by the media or members of the public from the public viewing area.

You can watch Council meetings conducted in public LIVE on the Saanich website, www.saanich.ca or view the archived version which is available within 48 hours of broadcast and will remain online for several years.

Cameras

There are five cameras in the Council Chamber. The Council members and speakers at the podium are the intended subjects of video recording. Audience members may also be seen and heard on the video.

Addressing Council

The District's procedure bylaw requires that individuals addressing Council provide their name and address for the record. If you do not want to publically state your name and address you have the option of submitting this information directly to the Recording Secretary attending the meeting.

Your Personal Information

Your personal information, including your name, image and opinions may be recorded and made available online as part of the public record of Council meetings. By speaking at these meetings you are consenting to disclosure of any personal information made evident through your speech or presentation materials. You are also asserting your presentation is in compliance with the Federal Copyright Act and grant the District of Saanich license to publish these materials.

Copyright

No person may reproduce the material contained in webcasts for financial gain or other personal use without the express written consent of the Legislative Manager.
