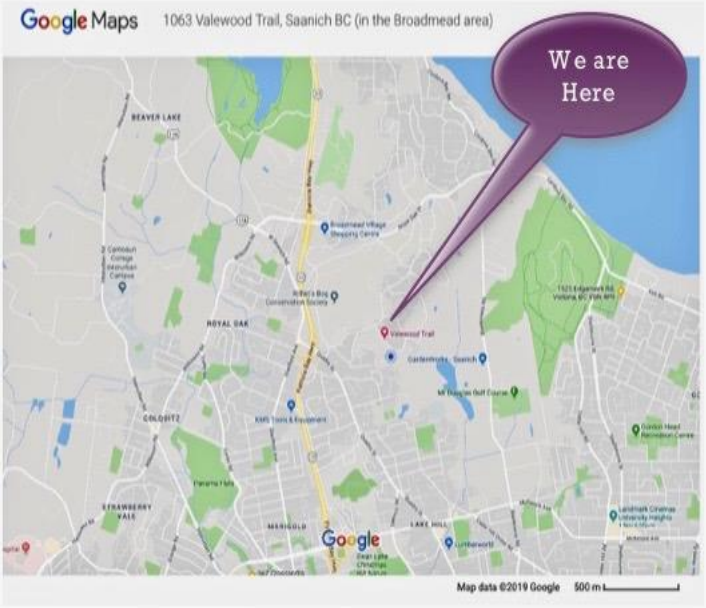
The First Annual
Valewood Trail Art Walk
June 1 & 2, 2019
11 am - 4 pm

Several local artists residing in the Valewood Trail area of Broadmead will be showcasing samples of their art in various mediums such as: Fabric Art, Watercolour, Pen & Ink Art, Oil Painting, Stained Glass, Pottery, Wood Carving and Luthiery.

Join us on the Woodcroft Grove property at:
1063 Valewood Trail
Saanich, BC

How to find us:



Artist Bio's:

- Linda Carswell-Bland - Linda is a fibre artist who specializes in realism but also dabbles in mixed media.
- Richard Bland - Richard is a self taught artist specializing in pen and ink architecture and landscape scenes.
- Daniel Casey – Dann has been working in clay for the past decade. He is a Clinical Social Worker who uses art to work with children and adults who have experienced trauma. Daniel is currently the President of the South Vancouver Island Potters Guild and the President of the Board for the Metchosin International Summer School of the Arts.
- Sandy King - A Passion for Victoria, it's architecture, nature, and even the beauty of the ordinary makes its way into Sandy's detailed yet imaginative watercolours.
- Melanie Spencer - A watercolour artist whose paintings are diverse in topic with special attention to animals, birds and landscapes. Her work has been described as uplifting, colourful and whimsical.
- Daniel Stann - Dan is a stained glass artist and musician who also dabbles in building custom classical guitars and woodcarving.
- Frank Stock - Frank strives to capture beautiful scenes in his oil and watercolour paintings. Frank's paintings hang in England, France, South Africa, USA and in several Canadian provinces.

Of Interest:

- Artwork will be for sale
- Live music on site

We look forward to seeing you.