

Frequently Asked League Questions

Why join our Leagues?

Our leagues are intended to promote community, and welcome all golfers (competitive or not, skilled or not) to our golf course.

How do I sign up?

Sign up can be made through Golf Genius:

Women's League	chgc-womensleagueatcedarhill1.golfgenius.com
Men's League	chgc-mensleagueatcedarhill1.golfgenius.com
9 and Dine Social	chgc-9anddine.golfgenius.com

Simply enroll in your desired league via Golf Genius and we will invite you to play each week. You can simply accept or decline participation from the weekly email you receive 7 days in advance. Note that sign ups always close 6 days in advance at 4pm.

Can I pick my desired group?

Yes, you can pick your foursome.

We also try to mix things up to help you grow your golfing networks.

What if I'm a single golfer?

Signing up as a single is a great way to meet new people. Commit to playing and we will pair you with a friendly group.

Can I choose my desired tee time?

We provide tee times for all golfers participating in the league.

How much does it cost to play?

League fee is $10 plus applicable green fees.

Do I need a handicap?

No, but handicaps are promoted to participate in net competitions. Leagues are open to all golfers, competitive or not, handicap or not.

We are committed to welcoming all who want to play golf and join our league community.

How do the prizes work?

50% of league fees are allocated to prizes in the form of gift certificates. Prizes will be given out for performing well in the many different formats offered each week. Your credit can be used for anything in the Golf Shop or in The Derby Restaurant.

Green fees do not apply.

Are there different formats and games?

Yes, to keep things interesting we will be offering many different formats and challenges. Formats like, two-person best ball, four-person team, tombstone, scrambles, stableford, and others will be offered throughout the season. Plus closest to the pins, etc.
