

Cedar Hill Golf Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

May I pick my desired group?

- Yes, you may pick your foursome

What if I'm a single golfer?

- Signing up as a single is a great way to meet new people. Commit to playing and we will pair you with a group.

May I choose my desired tee time?

- We will provide tee times for all golfers participating in the league.

How much does it cost to play?

- League fee is $5. Or golfers who intend on playing the entire season have the option to pay a Full Season League Fee of $100.

Do I need a handicap?

- No, but handicaps are promoted to better enjoy any net competitions. Leagues are open to all golfers, competitive or not, handicap or not. We are committed to welcoming all who want to play golf and join our fun community.

Do I have to play in the competitions?

- No, golfers with handicaps can participate in net competitions. Golfers without handicaps can enjoy the golf course as a social experience.

How do the prizes work?

- 75% of league fees are allocated to prizes. Prizes in the form of a credit to your account will be given out for the many different formats offered each week. Your credit can be used for anything in the Golf Pro Shop or in The Derby Restaurant. Green fees do not apply.

Are there different formats and games?

- Yes, to keep things interesting we will be offering many different formats and challenges. Formats like, two-person best ball, four-person team, tombstone, scrambles, and others will be offered throughout the season. Plus closest to the pins, etc.

Is food afterwards mandatory?

- Food and drinks after the round is not mandatory, but is encouraged. Part of your League Fee provides you with a 10% discount on food in The Derby Restaurant on the day of play.

Are there season long points?

- Yes, points will be allocated for participation and also performance. We will have a season ending event to reward participants, similar to the FedEx Cup and the Cedar Hill League Cup.