There were so many fish back then that

1 out of 5000 eggs will survive, the rest will be eaten.

Seals, mink, sea otters, beavers and birds are some of the predators who eat the fish roe (eggs).

Fish have ears.

Sticklebacks are found in shallow water.