

A mosaic migration of pebbles along the pathway them to their River. For three weeks in the Spring of opposite their school. With the enthusiastic help of connection of the community with the river, and the administration and staff, the project engaged evidence of human caring about an important almost every student at the school, and resulted in community asset. Colquitz Middle School students create art that links the creation of 240 mosaics, or "stones".

2009, the students at Colquitz Middle School worked The mosaics were installed by Saanich Parks over the during their workshops took place at the 3rd Annual Colquitz Middle School and with a group of artists to create pebble mosaics to summer season. Their placement along the Colquitz RiverSong event, Sunday September 27th, 2009, Mosaic the City. mark the pathway that follows the Colquitz River River Linear Park trail provides a physical legacy of the marking BC Rivers Day.

A public celebration of the stones students made Habitat Acquisition 7

RiverSong/RiverStones was supported by: BC Arts

Council Arts Based Community Development Fund, Saanich Parks and Recreation,