About the Park:

This neighbourhood park, which is separated from Copley Park West by Vanalman Avenue, features both gravel and rustic trails, a playground, picnic tables and open fields. The park, adjacent to the Colquitz River and associated natural surroundings, is accessible to a number of other parks via the beautiful Colquitz River Centennial Trail. Access is off Vanalman Avenue and both Northridge and Eastridge Crescent.

Remember to leash your dog when within 10m of the playground.
