Saanich Exhibition Program

Our community gallery spaces showcase a breadth of artistic practice and creative exploration at all levels of development. We believe that arts-based engagement builds healthy communities. Applications are open to everyone.

Gallery spaces showcase:

- Local, regional artists
- Community group projects/collaborations
- Solo, group, and curated exhibits
- Members of equity-seeking groups

Our gallery spaces are public spaces for all.

- Artwork must be appropriate for all ages, respectful of diverse cultures and beliefs, and not include politically polarizing subject matter.

Exhibitions are installed by the artist.

Selected artists are provided gallery space to exhibit their artwork and build professional practices for creating and installing their own exhibit.

Saanich Exhibition Program

Creating a robust proposal – 300 words

What are you hoping to convey through your exhibition? How might you do this?

Clearly communicate your ideas and intentions. Persuade the reader through excitement and potential, whilst also being realistic.

How do your ideas fit withing the gallery space?

Does your idea support the gallery's vision?
How can your exhibit further engage the public?

Think outside the box.
Could your idea be enhanced by adding a unique component?
Another artist?
